Club Director	Oversees one Awana club program. Responsibilities include communicating vision, shepherding leaders, managing administrative duties and communicating to church leadership, parents, clubbers and leaders.
Counsel Teacher	Teaches children age-appropriate Bible lessons in a large group setting for one of the Awana clubs. There is one Counsel Teacher for each club.
Game Director	Plans and leads age-appropriate games during Game Time. Directs games for Sparks and T&T.
Leader/Listener	Builds relationships with a small group of clubbers to help them learn and understand handbook sections and Bible lessons. Escorts clubbers through all segments of club night. Listens to clubbers recite sections during Handbook Time.
Secretary	Provides administrative support by maintaining attendance records, achievement records, tracking inventory and placing orders. There are several secretaries serving in each club.
Song Leader	Leads song time in an age-appropriate way in a large group setting, usually during Counsel Time. May sing, play an instrument and/or lead hand motions. Song Leader may provide songs for more than one club.
Store Director	Oversees the Awana store including stocking items for the store, labeling prices on store items, setting up, running, and breaking down the store. The store is open 4 times during the Awana year.
Project Coordinator	Oversees the planning and management of ministry projects clubbers participate in during the club year. Helps plan and organize Awana awards at the end of year.
